A STORYTELLING PODCAST

THE RED EYE

Narrated and Produced by
Ally Murphy

Ally Murphy is a former flight attendant, now an award winning voice actor. Ally was writing down her memories when she realised how interesting and diverse her life had been, and when talking to other crew she found there were lots of stories to share!

ABOUT

True stories, that have been turned into short audio stories with a fictional flair! Bringing you extraordinary stories from the experiences of flight attendants, pilots and their passengers. From thrilling dramas to side-splitting humour and life-altering moments, each episode immerses you in a world of adventure. Listen as real-life events, told in a fictional style, transport you from the aircraft's cabin to the ground and across the globe. Join us for a journey of discovery, emotion, and entertainment through the eyes of those who soar the skies. Fasten your seatbelts and get ready to take off into the unforgettable world of The Red Eye

Our Audience

Anyone who has ever been fascinated by the stories that come about from travel. Whether that is exploring new destinations, meeting people from all walks of life that change your life perspective, or just those hilarious tales of what passengers get up to in the cabin when the lights are out and the sleeping tablets kick in... Each episode is under 30 minutes so perfect for those who love a short story as they go about their day!
